WITNESS OVERCOME.

Policeman Kearney Testifies with Deep Emotion.

BOSTON, Dec. 31. In the trial of Policeman Kearney to-day the prisoner testified as to the events of the evening of the tragedy, of the particular instructions of the captain to look out for burglars who were infesting the district and who had fired on officers. When opposite Low's house he saw a shadowy form run down the yard. He called to halt twice, but no notice being taken of his command he fired with his and downward. He could not tell whether the figure was that of a man or boy, and he certainly thought it was a burglar and fired the shot to intimidate him and not to hurt him. The witness said that he had studied the manual somewhat when appointed on the force, but had never read the rule as to revolvers with particular attention. When relating the story of the shooting Kearney was completely overcome by emotion and wept and sobbed as he gave his testimony.

DASTARDLY ACT.

Masked Fiends Nearly Kill a Man.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 31. Saturday evening, while Roswell Vernoy, a respectable young farmer, was visiting Miss Parker, at Hurleyville, six masked men entered, seized Vernoy, drew a canvas sack over his head and shoulders, tied his legs and arms with ropes, carried him in a sleigh out of the town and threw him upon a snow bank by the roadside. Vernoy would have perished of cold had not neighbors heard his cries and released him. The people believe the deed to have been the work of jealous rivals.

ALL ROUND CROOK.

An Ex-Convict Escaped from Custody.

BOSTON, Dec. 31. Thomas Cook, an ex-convict and all round crook, who, in resisting arrest a week ago last Monday, for breaking and entering attempted to shoot an officer, escaped from custody early this morning. He was brought alone in the prison van from the Charles street jail to the Roxbury district court room, reaching there quite early, before court opened. While being taken into the almost deserted building by the driver of the van, who is an old man, Cook assaulted his keeper and succeeded in getting away. All the police in the city have been notified to look out for him.

A Bill of Exception.

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 31. This will throw from 8,000 to 10,000 men out of work and seriously cripple business on the railroads.

ASK YOUR FRIENDS

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, etc. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends.

For scrofula in every form Hood's Sarsaparilla is a radical, reliable remedy. It has an unequaled record of cures. 2

OF COURSE IT'S A WOMAN.

"The hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rocks the world."

The mother, sitting beside and rocking the cradle, often singing her sad lullaby, may be thus shaping, as it were, the destinies of nations. But if diseases, consequent on motherhood, have borne her down, and sapped her life, how mournful will be her song. To cheer the mother, brighten her life, and brighten her song, Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has, after long experience, compounded a remedy which he has called his "Favorite Prescription," because ladies preferred it to all others. He guarantees it to cure nervousness, neuralgic pains, bearing-down pains, irregularities, weakness, or prolapsus, headache, backache, or any of the ailments of the female organs. What he asks is, that the ladies shall give it a fair trial, and satisfaction is assured. Money refunded, if it doesn't give satisfaction. TuF&w

ARCHBISHOP DENNISON'S FAMOUS TOAST.

"Here's health to all that we love,
Here's health to all that love us,
Here's health to all those that love them,
That love those that love them
That love us."

Do you notice what a large circle this wish for health includes? and will you notice the reference is not to the wine-cup, but to a standard medicine, the "Golden Medical Discovery," that can bring health to the large number of friends we each love. True, it is not a "beverage," and does not inebriate, but is a health-giving medicine, a blood-purifier, liver invigorator and general tonic—a remedy for Biliousness, Indigestion, and Stomach troubles. It cures Consumption, in its early stages, Scrofula, Bronchitis, and throat diseases. MTh&w

DO YOU COUGH?

Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure your coughs and colds. It will cure sore throat, or a tickling in the throat. It will cure pains in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases pertaining to the lungs because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c. and $1. TTS&wtfeb15

Beecham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach. d&w 1

There are many things known as good for a cough, yet the special virtues of all are combined in Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam. Purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, no narcotic, soothing, healing. dec27 d&w1w

BREWER LOCALS.

1891—A Happy New Year to you!

Mr. John R. Wallis and wife, of St. John, are spending a few days in this city with Mr. Wallis' father, Mr. J. A. Wallis.

To-day being a legal holiday, the Brewer Savings Bank will be closed all day and the post office will be closed from 12 noon to 5.30.

A horse undertook to stop the car yesterday by standing across the track and did so, but was very shortly moved from his position.

The ladies' circle will meet in the Congregational church vestry this afternoon, supper will be served to the gentlemen at 6.30, and afterward a pleasant programme will be given.

Mr. John Anderson, while going to the stable to care for his horse and return yesterday morning, only a short distance, froze both of his ears, having carelessly ventured out without protection for them.

The scraper and shovellers finished work on Main street yesterday and the road is in excellent condition. It is seldom indeed that this road gets cleared out so promptly and thoroughly after a storm as severe as the last. Mayor Sargent expresses himself much pleased with the way the work has been done.

Mr. Bert Haynes, of Amherst, a successful hunter in that region, came into the city yesterday morning with two deer, a fox and a coon, which he had shot. The coon, all dressed and ready for cooking, he presented to Col. Jasper Hutchings, who has spent many days in the woods hunting with Mr. Haynes.

The barge Storm King, which many of our citizens remember as a carrier of ice during the large ice business of last summer, broke loose from the tug Saturn recently while being towed to Newport News in company with the barge Antelope, and although the Antelope reached New York all right the Storm King was not heard of for two or three days, when she was reported at anchor off Highlands, N. J.

Word has been received in this city that the brig Fidelia, of which Capt. Jordan, of this city, is commander, arrived in New York, Monday, after a very rough trip of twenty-two days from Turks Island with salt. The vessel had a continuation of southeast and northwesterly gales with heavy seas which flooded the cabin and galley, started the water casks and caused other damage about the decks.

It is now hoped that the schooner Melissa Trask, Capt. Trask of this city, which is ashore on the outer beach at Sandy Hook, may not be a complete wreck but that she may yet be saved, although pretty severely damaged. The latest advices report that part of the keel is gone and the water flows in her with the tide, deck houses damaged by deck load getting loose, most of which still remains on deck and the rest of it having washed ashore.

Mr. Ed. Barton has just finished a handsome new hand sled for Charles Prentiss, which from its lines is liable after practice to be ranked among the swift sleds of the Penobscot region. The sled is six feet and four inches in length, very narrow, and will doubtless be a hustler. Considerable rivalry exists among the owners of both single and double runners and the one who can go the farthest in each class is considered the champion of not only Brewer, but Bangor as well.

A pleasant party of the acquaintances of Mrs. F. H. Bunker, from her former home in Fairfield, arrived last evening at her home in this city and will return to Fairfield to-night. In the party are Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Roundy, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Furber, Hon. and Mrs. Al H. Tolman, who have just returned from a wedding tour to New York and Philadelphia and continued their trip to this city on their return, Miss Ada Jones, Mr. F. H. Neal and D. K. Allen.

Quicksilver.

The quicksilver took a drop yesterday morning after a severely cold night and although it didn't drop farther than the bottom of the tube in the limits of our city, it went far enough to suit the most exacting of that class of people who "always enjoy such bracing air," even they being obliged to unite with the multitude in the endeavor, with both hands, to keep their noses, cheeks and ears warm at the same time and not freeze their fingers in the act. Although Brewer generally carries off the palm for cold weather, yet from all the reports which reached our ears from across the river, Bangor has beaten the record by four degrees, the thermometer at Kenney & McMahon's store registering 42° below, yesterday morning. The coldest on this side, as far as reported, were at C. E. Lunt's house and Sargent & Nickerson's store, where the mercury dropped to the 38° mark, varying in different parts of the city up to 25° below, the warmest place in town, out of doors. At noon the mercury stood at zero and indications didn't seem to point to a thaw for that year, although we shall probably have several this year.

Past and Present.

To-day marks the beginning of a new year. The second year in the history of the municipality of Brewer has come to a close and as we look back we can see many improvements which have been introduced.

There have been some accidents, such as the burning of a part of the pulp mill, entailing a loss of $25,000, while some of those who commenced the year of '90 with us have crossed to "the other shore" and are gone from Brewer forever.

Electricity, it may safely be said, is the most important and the first improvement to attract our attention, since it plays so important a part in our midst. With its introduction have come the Brewer line of the street railway, a most important enterprise, connecting as it does the two business portions of our growing city and giving the residents of the southern end of our city facilities for getting to Bangor, a very important matter when we consider the number who are in business in that part of the city and must have some way of getting back and forth. Electricity has also during the year been introduced to us in street lights and the telephone, now in use, are considered by all a valuable addition. Many of our stores, the Congregational church and City Hall are using electricity and electric plants have been introduced for lighting purposes into the mills of F. W. Ayer & Co. and the Eastern Manufacturing Company at South Brewer.

Our handsome new City Hall, as fine as any city of its size in the State can boast, [illegible] which gave us electricity has pushed a scheme to furnish water from their own water works and we are now not only independent of Bangor for our water supply but being connected with the main on the other side can either furnish or receive help in case of difficulty.

D. Sargent's Sons, at South Brewer, have started a new industry in the form of a kindling wood mill, which will give employment to many hands and altogether, with the numerous industries which have been introduced into our city during the year, 1891 opens before us rosy-hued and full of golden promise, which all trust may be fulfilled in the future.

Last, but by no means least, among the additions is the introduction of a column in THE WHIG, especially devoted to the interests of our city and giving her inhabitants all the advantages of a daily paper of their own, as all local news of interest is chronicled each morning. Now is the time to subscribe and commence with the new year if you want all the news for 1891.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1891.

THE WHIG this morning wishes its readers a Happy New Year and many returns of the same.

The Chicago Globe has figured out that the National Government costs the people in taxation $467,837,490 a year, $35,684,800 a month, $8,971,200 a week, $1,281,600 a day, $53,400 an hour, or $890 a minute. Uncle Sam is a nice old fellow, but he does come high.—Boston Globe.

On the above basis the tax per capita in the United States is about $7.50. In England the tax per capita is about $12.75. Thus it appears that our people are more lightly taxed than those of free trade England.

Not satisfied with their brutal murder of young Matthews, the Mississippi Bourbons including Senator George are now trying to smirch his reputation. Sealing a man's lips with the bullet of an assassin and then defaming his good name is typical of this style of Southern chivalry. The crime of young Matthews, who was murdered just as his father before him was murdered, consisted of the fact that he was a Republican. These murders follow as a natural result of the political methods so long in vogue in Mississippi, and when it is proposed to enact legislation to reach those methods, to the everlasting shame of the country it has to be admitted that Senators on the Republican side of the chamber denounce it on the ground that it may hurt trade.

In order to get more space to meet the demand upon its advertising and news departments and at the same time retain its present general form, the columns of THE WHIG have been lengthened. This increase on the four pages will enlarge the paper by some three columns, an advantage that will be appreciated by our patrons. The change goes into effect this morning and thus THE WHIG will begin the new year larger and better than ever before. We are not given to boasting, but may be pardoned in saying that as a family newspaper THE WHIG has no superior. Its news columns are complete in every department. Daily it gives its readers both the day and night reports of the Associated Press, which in the thoroughness of its service has become one of the wonders of the age, and is to-day indispensable to a live newspaper. Moreover as THE WHIG is daily delivered at the homes of the people who are the most liberal patrons of our merchants, its advertising columns afford an unexcelled medium through which to reach purchasers. This fact is generally recognized by our merchants as our columns have amply testified during the holiday trade. May the New Year prove a happy and prosperous one to all.

Senators Who Need to Study the Republican Platform.

The Democratic organs are vociferous in their applause of Senator Walcott of Colorado, who made a speech in opposition to the Election bill, Tuesday. Mr. Walcott is a Republican, but in the main he made a Democratic speech, hence the delight of the Bourbons and their Northern apologists. The one point of difference between the speech of the Colorado Senator and the Southern Bourbons was the fact that Mr. Walcott admitted that the charges made by the Republicans of the suppression of the colored vote were true. With this exception, he plodded along in the old Democratic rut. We say old because when he came to assign a reason for not passing the bill he adopted exactly the same argument used against suppressing the traffic in human beings, namely, that any interference with slavery would prove injurious to trade. Back in the sixties men were found who placed the almighty dollar in the balance as outweighing the curse of slavery, and to-day the same sentiment finds an exponent in Mr. Walcott, who regards a shameful nullification of the Constitution that threatens the very foundation of good government as of minor consideration when compared with trade. We would suggest that a few Republican Senators, who are working either directly or indirectly to avoid making a record on the Election bill, devote a little of their valuable time to a careful study of the last Republican platform. They will there find the following declaration:

> We reaffirm our unswerving devotion to the National Constitution * * * and especially to the supreme and sovereign right of every lawful citizen, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, to cast one free ballot in public elections and to have that ballot duly counted. We hold the free and honest popular ballot and the just and equal representation of all the people to be the foundation of our Republican government, and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections, which are the fountains of public authority. We charge that the present administration and the Democratic majority in Congress owe their existence to a suppression of the ballot by the criminal nullification of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

There is nothing ambiguous about this plank of the platform. It is a clearly worded pledge to the people that the Republicans will enact legislation to secure honest elections. That pledge, accepted in good faith by the people, is binding upon every Republican in the Senate. The servant is not greater than his master, nor is even a United States Senator greater than his party, although some of them seem to think otherwise. The House has redeemed his pledge and the failure of the Senate to perform its duty at the first session was one of the causes that led to the Republican defeat in November. Even as good a Democrat as Senator Gorman has admitted that the Democratic victory was due to the fact that the Republicans did not get to the polls, and this stay at home vote was largely influenced by the shilly-shally course of the Senate. That body cannot undo the mischief already done, but it can even at this late day keep faith with the people. The Election bill should pass without further delay, or at least if it is to fail it should be on a yea and nay vote so that those Republicans who prove faithless to the pledge of the party shall go on record.

Effects of the New Tariff.

Under the above caption the New York Tribune points out some of the beneficial results of the new tariff that have already manifested themselves, as follows: A few days ago a Western gentleman arrived at this city returning from Europe, having there concluded contracts for the establishment of a complete mill for the manufacture of linen goods in a Western State. With supplies of raw material abundant and close at hand, which are now going to waste, with improved processes for preparing the fibre for the manufacture, and with ample capital secured, the parties interested in this enterprise expect to be among the first to take advantage of the new duties on linen products.

For three years from January 1, the duty on the finer manufactures of flax, [illegible] more than 100 [illegible] to the [illegible]

Thus the new tariff is actually developing manufactures and creating a new and larger demand for labor, notwithstanding the apprehension caused by votes in November.

In a recent issue the Pittsburg Commercial-Gazette gave detailed information of seven companies or establishments which have undertaken the manufacture of tin plates. A plant for 2,500 boxes per week is to be established in Brooklyn, two are going on with the work at Pittsburg, one at St. Louis and one at Chicago have placed orders for the machinery to begin the manufacture, one at Cleveland will begin the manufacture at a new mill to be in operation next month, and one other at Chicago has already turned out some tin plates from a small factory, and expects to have a large establishment at work in the spring.

All this is only a beginning, it is true, but as soon as the manufacture has been begun with success there will be domestic producers entering the field in great number. The general secretary of the Tin Plate Workers' Association in Wales, Mr. Phillips, recently stated that 280 mills costing $4,500,000, were engaged in making the 6,000,000 boxes now sent yearly to this country. The establishment here of works having half that capacity would be a great benefit to the United States, and at least a third of the tin plate consumed in this country must be produced here within six years, or the duty will by the terms of the McKinley act be removed.

These are illustrations of the benefits which are already being conferred by two sections of the new tariff that have not yet gone into full effect. The duty on tin plates has not been changed at all as yet, and will not be until July 1, and the duty on finer linens will not be changed for three years, and yet these provisions of the law are causing the establishment of important works already. It might have been supposed that the votes in November, if deemed reason for refusing to put up new works under any provisions of the new act, would with peculiar force deter men from acting in the hope that provisions would be maintained which are not to go into effect for some years. But level-headed business men evidently have a different idea of the political prospects from those entertained by free-trade rainbow-chasers.

If such results as have been mentioned already follow these provisions of the new act, it may be inferred that others which have already gone into full effect are producing a development of manufactures in many directions. And this is the fact. In a recent glance through the trade papers received in a single week, mention was observed of no less than fifty new works in progress or about to open, including some of large importance. In addition, many establishments which have been idle for a long time have gone into active operation again, particularly in the woollen manufacture. The people who made haste to pronounce the McKinley act dead, or about to be repealed, may as well wait a little to see what the country thinks of its actual workings.

MAINE NEWS.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR.

Belfast Has Made a Good Showing in the Past Year.

Many Improvements Made and More Contemplated.

BELFAST, Dec. 31. The business of Belfast during 1890 has been prosperous and the valuation and population have increased. Eight vessels aggregating over 8,000 tons have been built in this district, which ranks third of the Maine shipbuilding districts. Ninety three or four-masters have loaded with ice and granite, mostly for New York. The shoe, clothing and lumber and other manufactures were highly successful. Among the leading events was the dedication of Memorial Hall, costing $25,000 and the introduction of arc lights in the streets.

An electric railway to Northport is among the enterprises contemplated for the coming year.

FROM BELFAST.

The Sheriff's Appointments.

BELFAST, Dec. 31. Sheriff Wadsworth, of Waldo County, appoints as deputies W. B. F. Twombly, of Monroe; A. G. Caswell, of Searsmont; J. W. Wallace, of Jackson; John T. Averill, of Frankfort.

HEARING ON PARDON CASE,

Before the Council—Reform School Report.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 31. The hearing in the Wilbur Day pardon case was continued before the Governor's Council to-day. The matter was tabled. The counsel for Day made a strong case, introducing facts tending to show that one of the principal witnesses against Day committed himself of the crime of burning Munson's buildings and that Day is innocent.

The report of the Reform School shows that the school is flourishing. The present number of inmates is 114. There have been 28 committed in the past year, 17 for larceny, three for truancy, one common runaway, two for vagrancy, three assault, one for arson, one for lewd behavior and of these seven came from Portland and 19 were born in Maine. Thirteen have intemperate parents. There has been $3,453.80 expended on the family cottage the past year. The trustees recommend an appropriation for 1891 of $24,000 and 1892, $20,000.

VERY TOUGH.

Can This Be Possible?

FORT FAIRFIELD, Dec. 31. It was 60 degrees below zero this morning.

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Dedication of the Magnificent Building Given to Thomaston.

THOMASTON, Dec. 31. Capt. Samuel Watts, of Boston, has built this season a handsome brick block costing over $30,000, containing three stores and above them a large hall. Adjoining the hall is a banquet room, with kitchen. The town office was built with a fire proof vault and the hall and rooms were furnished, all of which he has presented to the town.

The halls were opened last night with a grand reception to Capt. Watts and a dedication ball, tendered by the citizens, with an elaborate collation. Over seven hundred were present, many coming from various parts of the State and from Boston. The company was a most brilliant one. The costumes were rich and elegant and the whole affair was in keeping with the princely gift and very complimentary and satisfactory to Capt. Watts.

FROM AUGUSTA.

Change of Clerk—Augusta had a Prosperous Year.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 31. W. S. Cotton, Chief Clerk in the Secretary of State's affairs resigned to-day. Secretary Smith appoints as his successor Byron Boyd.

Augusta had a prosperous year in building and repairs. It is estimated that four hundred and fifty thousand dollars were expended, including seventy-five thousand dollars on the State House additions, fifty thousand on the Insurance Asylum and fifty-seven thousand on the bridge.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. The President to-day sent to the Senate the nominations of the following postmasters for Maine: John H. Ross, Bridgton; Willis E. Sanborn, Springvale.

ST. ALBANS, Dec. 31. The Rutland railroad, running from Burlington to Bellows Falls, for several years under control of Vermont management, as lessees, has just been re-leased by the Central for 999 years.

AN INTERESTING CAREER.

Sudden Death of Col. W. H. Paine.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 31. Col. W. H. Paine, of New York, who was prominently connected with the construction of the Brooklyn bridge and the Hudson river tunnel, died suddenly this morning of heart failure. He was born in New Hampshire and was about 54 years old. He was connected directly with the laying of every principal grip cable in the United States, and was the first engineer who made a chain survey across the continent to the Pacific ocean.

LONG MARRIED LIFE.

Two Couples Celebrate Their Golden Weddings.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Dec. 31. Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bunker celebrated their golden weddings this evening. The ladies are sisters. Kennedy and Bunker have been connected with the Plymouth cordage works for half a century.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Bradstreets' Account for the Year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. Bradstreets reports for the year 1890 failures in the United States, 10,673; actual assets $92,775,628; general liabilities, $175,032,836; per cent. of assets to liabilities, 53.

Of these failures New York City had 548, with actual assets of $31,040,069; general liabilities, $56,706,418.

During the year 1889 there were 11,719 failures in the United States, with actual assets of $70,599,769; general liabilities, $140,359,490; per cent. of assets to liabilities, 50.

CREDITOR'S CONSIDERING

An Offer of 50 cents on a Dollar.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. Sixty of the largest creditors of Frank Walker, the paper manufacturer who failed recently, met to-day. The attorney for the assignee stated the liabilities as $70,000; assets $37,000. The deficiency is accounted for by loss at the Bridgeport, Conn., mill of about $2,500 stock in shipping the machinery and in behalf of Mr. Walker offered a settlement of 50 cents on the dollar. The offer is being considered.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE

CONGRESSIONAL.

Mr. George Kills Time for the Democrats.

Mr. Hawley Makes Some Pertinent Remarks.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. Mr. Manderson offered a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the superintendent of the census to report at the earliest possible moment the population of the United States according to the census of 1890, by Congressional districts and counties.

Mr. Morgan asked the Vice President to lay before the Senate his resolution instructing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to report as to contests and the meaning of the Election bill.

Mr. Sherman made a point of order that a resolution which has been offered in the morning hour, and gone over without action, does not come up as unfinished business in the morning hour, but must go to the calendar.

After a sharp colloquy between the two Senators the Vice President sustained Mr. Sherman.

Mr. Morgan appealed and defended his resolution. He said that no Senator could state what the bill actually contained and attempt to keep track of it in its present shape. It was like hunting a red fox in the hills of Virginia.

The morning hour expired and the matter went over without action. The Senate then resumed consideration of the Election bill and was addressed by Mr. George in opposition.

Mr. Hawley made an explanation of some points made by Mr. George in connection with the laws and political practices of Connecticut. Commenting upon the fact that but little had been said by Mr. George as to the Mississippi constitution, Mr. Hawley said that the constitution contained a patent, open, acknowledged, defiant device disfranchising the colored citizens of Mississippi. Senator George could not justify it and could not answer the papers of his own state that condemned it. The pending bill was intended to remedy such a case as that. Perhaps it could not do so, but that clause of the Mississippi constitution was one of the most tremendous arguments in favor of the bill.

It seemed to have been brought in by Providence right in the very crisis of the controversy. It was not a week, Mr. Hawley said, since a young man was shot down in Senator George's town, in cold blood, because he was a Republican. He would like to see whether the murderer would be punished.

A somewhat acrimonious colloquy took place between Mr. Hoar and Mr. Teller over the comparison made by the latter Senator between the suffrage qualification in the Mississippi constitution and that in the Massachusetts constitution.

The Senate at 5.30 adjourned till Friday noon with the understanding that a further adjournment take place till Monday noon.

THE WOOL TRADE.

Interesting Figures Compiled of the Supply

As Compared With That of the Year Before.

BOSTON, Dec. 31. The American Wool Reporter, in the annual review of the wool trade of the United States, says:

The amount of wool on hand in most of the primary markets of the United States is not excessive, the total stock of domestic wool being 22,774,452 pounds, against 29,936,922 pounds last year at this time; foreign wool, 7,517,944 pounds. Last year the other markets were very similar in proportion. The decrease is shown in the recapitulation. The stocks in the principal markets to which is added the estimated amounts in other markets of of wool in the pullers hands, gives the total supply 92,819,334 pounds, against 90,284,659 a year ago.

The figures for the first ten months of 1890 for the whole United States show the total importations 87,944,191 pounds, in comparison with 110,721,456 for the corresponding time last year.

The only weak spot in the outlook is the probability of increased importations of foreign wools after the beginning of the year.

TOWN IN RUINS.

Fire Creates Havoc in a Nova Scotia Town.

PUGWASH, N. S., Dec. 31. The greater part of the business portion of this town is in ruins.

Thirteen buildings have been destroyed by fire.

The loss is estimated at $75,000, with little or no insurance.

FIRE RECORD.

Poultry Stand Burned.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. A fire in Solomon Frankel's poultry stand on the north avenue of West Washington market this morning caused damage to the amount of $15,000. About 6,000 pounds of live poultry perished.

An $100,000 Blaze.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 31. Fire this morning caused a loss of $100,000, divided among L. A. R. Reab, J. G. Bailie, carpets, Nichols Kahrs, groceries and D. Sancken, groceries.

Blaze in a Bad Place.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Dec. 31. About 7.30 this evening fire was discovered in the four story oil and glue establishment of Andrew W. Dodd, on Wharf street, at the head of the Boston and Gloucester steamboats wharf, in close proximity to the gas works and marine railroad, on either side of which are vessels. The firemen succeeded in confining the fire to the building where it originated.

The whole plant was destroyed, together with the stock, which consisted of about 200,000 barrels of oil and a large quantity of glue. As the locality is closely surrounded with many large and valuable buildings, assistance was called from Rockport and Beverly. The loss, as far as could be ascertained, is estimated at $75,000; insured for $43,000.

CAUSED BY THE COLD.

The Weather Interferes with Manufacturies.

LONDON, Dec. 31. Owing to the cold weather prevailing throughout Great Britain a number of the leading industries are suffering. The Staffordshire potteries have been forced to stop work as it is impossible to obtain workable clay, throwing out of work a large number of people.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Liabilities will be Under a Million.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. Counsel for the assigned firm of Bateman & Co. says the firm's liabilities will not reach $1,000,000.

CONNECTICUT.

Called a Meeting of Creditors.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 31. Jacob Sugenheimer, dealer in men's furnishing and fancy goods, has called a meeting of his creditors. The liabilities are $17,000; assets, $2,500.

DICKERING WITH THE DEMOCRATS.

Republicans who Prefer Free Coinage to Free Elections.

BOSTON, Dec. 31. A Washington special to the Journal says that yesterday's proceedings on the Election bill admit of no other interpretation than the existence of a definite agreement between the free silver Republicans and the Democrats of the Senate to defeat the Election bill and the closure resolution in the interests of a bill to make the coinage of silver free and unlimited. It is an open secret that Cameron and Quay are parties to the conspiracy.

WILMINGTON, Dec. 31. The Delaware Printing Company's establishment, printers and dealers in books, stationery, etc., was closed by the sheriff at noon. Mr. F. [illegible], president of the company, said he had no statement to make except the company was unable to meet its engagements.

A LIVELY BATTLE.

Indians and the Troops Fighting Again.

Indians Gathering and More Trouble Feared.

The Bucks Leaving Camp to Join the Hostiles.

Settlers Becoming Alarmed at the Situation.

Ranches Pillaged and Horses and Cattle Killed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. Gen. Miles telegraphed Gen Schofield this morning that the losses in the Wounded Knee creek affair were Capt. Wallace and 25 men killed, Lieut. Garlington and 34 men wounded. About 800 Indians were at or near the agency at the time and are now at Chadron, Neb. About 500 men belong to the hostile element.

On the War Path.

DICKINSON, N. D., Dec. 31. Major Cowell, with five troops of cavalry and two companies of infantry, will relieve Capt. Fountaine. He will patrol the country from Grand river as far west as the Little Missouri and as far east as Fort Yates. It is believed that the bands of Sioux now on the war path will move north.

Hot Fight in Progress.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 31. The Bee correspondent at Pine Ridge telegraphs that Gen. Brooke has just received word from a fight at the Catholic mission on Clay creek that six men of the Seventh cavalry have been killed and many wounded.

The first intimation of the trouble at the mission was brought yesterday afternoon by a courier who said the mission building, where are a number of Catholic priests, sisters and hundreds of children, was surrounded by hostiles and had been fired. The cavalry men, who had had no rest for four days, were instantly in the saddle, and with a couple of Hotchkiss guns started on a gallop for the mission.

As this despatch was being written the roar of guns could be heard, indicating that a hot fight was in progress.

Two Strike, Little Wound, Short Bull and other chiefs ran away from the agency Monday night after hearing of the Wounded Knee fight, taking with them hundreds of warriors. They also compelled old chief Red Cloud to accompany them under threat of death. They attacked a supply train yesterday morning and in the afternoon raided the Catholic mission.

Gone On the Warpath.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 31. Gen. Miles left Chardon for Pine Ridge with a large force of cavalry. It is reported the ranchers on White River have been pillaged, horses stolen and cattle killed. John Dyer, chief herder of the government herders, has abandoned the herd. Three ranchers are reported killed on White River. The Catholic mission near Chardon was burned by the Indians this morning. Gen. Brook ordered a detachment there to guard the town. It is now snowing on the reservation and a blizzard is setting in. The ranchers are leaving home and flocking into Chardon. The loss of life and property is great. Three thousand Indians, it is rumored, have broken away from the agency and gone on the warpath.

A Desultory Fight.

OMAHA, Neb. Dec. 31. A special to the Bee from Rushville says: A blinding snow storm fast assuming the proportions of a blizzard began falling here and at the agency at 9 this morning. Advices are that a desultory fight was kept up nearly all night at the late battle ground within a few miles of the agency until, by reason of the suspicious actions of the alleged friendly Indians in camp near the agency, the troops were called in from the field. It transpired late yesterday evening that the large camp of friendlies located south of the agency was made up almost entirely of Old Men, Squaws and Children.

The question is what has become of the supposedly large number of friendly bucks located there until yesterday. A half breed courier who went through the camp last night reports that nearly every able bodied Indian quietly slipped away after dusk and joined the hostile forces.

The friendly Indians at Pine Ridge are now, he says, principally squaws and those not able to fight. Up to 11 this morning everything was reported quiet and both sides resting on their arms, each waiting for some move from the opposing forces.

That further fighting will occur there seems to be no doubt. If the Indians should make an onslaught during the storm they would undoubtedly have great advantage.

The Danger

is that they will now break away to their strongholds in the Bad Lands and be reinforced by the Rosebud, Standing Rock and other Indians.

Eight more dead soldiers were brought into the agency after dark last night, a part of yesterday's fatalities. The losses to the Indians is known to be great. The definite numbers are not ascertained.

Two strangers were murdered within 2 miles of the agency yesterday. It is now believed they were teamsters from Rushville.

Indian signal lights were again plainly visible last night in Bow county, twenty miles north of here.

Situation Serious.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 31. A Bee special from Rushville, Neb., says: Chief Two Strikes and a large body of followers broke away from the agency during the day and started either for the Bad Lands or a point near Rosebud agency. Word was sent to the commander of the troops at Rosebud to try and intercept the band. Red Cloud and all the lesser chiefs except American Horse have joined their brethren for the last great fight. The storm still rages and gives every advantage to the Indians either for fighting or escaping to some safe retreat.

The List of Killed.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 31. A special to the Bee from Pine Ridge says the following is correct list of the killed and wounded at Wounded Knee Monday as far as known at the hospital headquarters, where all have been brought:

Dead—George D. Wallace, Capt. of Co. K, 7th Cavalry; Johnson, private Co. A, 7th Cavalry; Frey, private Co. A, 7th Cavalry; Dyer, fifth sergeant Co. A, 7th Cavalry; Kelley, private Co. A, 7th Cavalry; Cain, private Co. A, 7th Cavalry; Coffey,

First Sergeant

Co. B, 7th Cavalry; Book, private Co. B, 7th Cavalry; Joseph Murphy, private Co. K, 7th Cavalry; Kellner, private Co. E, 7th Cavalry; Neales, first sergeant Co. E, 7th Cavalry; Oscar Paddock, hospital steward, U. S. A.; Hodges, private Co. K; Hope, corporal Co. I; Forrest, private Co. B; Newell, private Co. B; McCue, private Co. K; Logan, private Co. A; Costello, private Co. B; Hagan, private Co. A; Christenson, private Co. H; Roneke, private Co. D; DeFrey, private Co. C; William Adams, private Co. K, all of the 7th Cavalry. The total killed was 33 men.

BATEMAN & CO.'S AFFAIRS.

Member of the Firm Says All Creditors will be Paid.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. Arthur E. Bateman and Charles E. Coon, comprising the firm of Bateman & Co., bankers and brokers, at 57 Broadway and 1411 F street, Washington, filed an assignment to-day, giving preferences to the Fourth National bank for $45,000 for loans and advances, and to Baldwin, Farnum & Co., of Chicago, for $35,000 for money advanced as margins. Bateman made an individual assignment.

Coon said to-day the report of liabilities of over $1,000,000 is greatly exaggerated. They would not be anywhere near as large. At present he could not say what the amount would be. He said the

by the failure of their customers to meet obligations and the firm assigned in order to protect themselves and their creditors. Bateman has been largely interested in and a holder of securities which, if thrown on the market now, would have to be sacrificed. If these securities could be held they would appreciate in value and not only all the property of the firm, but Bateman's private property would be placed in the hands of an assignee. Coon thought that not only would the creditors be paid in full but there would be a surplus.

A LARGE INCOME.

Yet the Duchess of Marlborough Could Not Spare $50,000.

Court Decides She Must Scrape Along On $80,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. The Supreme Court has decided that Lily W. Churchill, Duchess of Marlborough, formerly widow of millionaire Lewis G. Hammersley, must apply $50,000 a year to the payment of three judgments aggregating nearly $700,000 recovered against her recently in a suit begun by John Jaffray, who holds judgments to ascertain how much her ladyship required for her maintenance.

The Duchess answered that her net income would not exceed $135,000 and all of it was necessary for her expenses.

William A. Duer was selected as referee. He finds the gross annual income $140,000; net income $130,000. The referee further finds that she will have a reasonable allowance after deducting $50,000 a year and this report was approved.

GEN. SPINNER DEAD.

He was Ex-Treasurer of the United States and Held Other Offices.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 31. Gen. T. E. Spinner, ex-Treasurer of the United States, died at 8.30 this evening. He was born at German Flats, now Mohawk, N. Y., in 1802. He engaged in trade at Herkimer, N. Y., in 1824 and five years later became deputy sheriff of the county. He was active in the militia organization and in 1834 reached the grade of Major General. Subsequently he became Sheriff and labor commissioner for the building of the State lunatic asylum at Utica. He held various local offices and was auditor and deputy naval

at New York 1845-9. In 1854 he was elected to Congress as an anti-slavery Democrat. He served on the committee on privileges and elections, on the special committee to investigate the assault made by Preston Brooks on Charles Sumner, on the conference committee of both houses on the Army Appropriation bill, which the Senate rejected on account of the clause it contained, which forbade the use of the military against Kansas settlers. Gen. Spinner was an active Republican from the formation of the party and was twice re-elected to Congress. In the Lincoln administration Secretary Chase for Treasurer of the United States, which office he filled from March 16, '61, till June 30, '75. When, during the war, many clerks joined the army, Gen. Spinner suggested to Mr. Chase the advisability of employing women in the Government offices, and carried into effect this innovation, though not without much opposition.

Selected Gen. Spinner

He signed the different series of paper money issued in the singular handwriting which he cultivated in order to try and prevent counterfeiting. When he resigned the office he went south for his health and for some years he lived in camp at Pebble Beach, Florida.

WILL NOT DISCHARGE THEM.

President of Harvester Company Denies a Report.

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 31. Thomas M. Osborne, president of the American Harvester Company, denied to-day the report that the combine of 22 harvester making companies is to discharge 10,000 men. None of the old manufactories are to be closed. He said the intention is to eventually manufacture all paints, varnish, twine, etc., used in the business, one shop to be used to manufacture paint, another twine, etc.

Bennett and Corbett made a full confession last night concerning the particulars of the robbery. According to their story Featherstone and Mullen were the principals and Bennett and Corbett the tools.

OF COURSE IT'S A WOMAN.

"The hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rocks the world."

The mother, sitting beside and rocking the cradle, often singing her sad lullaby, may be thus shaping, as it were, the destinies of nations. But if disease, consequent on motherhood have borne her down, and sapped her life, how mournful will be her song. To cheer the mother, brighten her life, and brighten her song, Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, has, after long experience, compounded a remedy which he has called his "Favorite Prescription," because ladies preferred it to all others. He guarantees it to cure nervousness, neuralgic pains, bearing-down pains, irregularities, weakness, or, in lapsus, headache, backache, or any of the ailments of the female organs. What we ask is, that the ladies shall give it a fair trial, and satisfaction is assured. Money refunded, if it doesn't give satisfaction. TuF&w

A Happy New Year.

The Misses Crowell are visiting relatives in Boston.

Make your good resolutions to-day and keep them.

Woleedi is the new game. It is like whist, only more so.

The Public Library will be closed to-day as it is a legal holiday.

To-day being a legal holiday the banks will be closed both forenoon and afternoon.

There will be a concert at the Crosbyville chapel Sunday evening to which all are invited.

The dance arranged for Friday night at Andrews' Hall will occur at that time, as the repairs in the lower part of the block will then be finished.

To-day, being a legal holiday, will be observed at the postoffice. The office will be open from 8 to 9 A. M., and from 7 to 8 P. M. The carriers will make their forenoon delivery, as usual.

All comrades of B. H. Beale Post, No. 12, G. A. R., are invited to be present at the installation ceremonies this evening at G. A. R. Hall. Supper will be served at the close of the meeting.

The ladies of the Crusade will hold their regular business meeting in their parlors on Franklin street this afternoon at half-past two. Prayer meeting to which all are cordially invited at four.

Assessors returns to the Valuation Commission, regarding the cotton mills in the State, show that during the decade from 1880 to 1890 the number of spindles has been increased from 640,566 to 859,890 or a gain of 219,324 spindles.

To-day being the Feast of the Circumcision in the church calendar there will be an appropriate service at St. John's Episcopal church this forenoon at 10.30. The rector, Rev. John McGaw Foster, will deliver an address suited to the occasion.

There has been some whist playing in this city this winter at parties, but very little in comparison with the amount of playing that has been done in former years. It was a great fad at one time, but seems to be superceded this winter by dancing.

During the last few weeks the weather has been terrific for seamen on our Maine coasters, and many are the tales of suffering and loss of life which come to us in the newspapers. Many vessels have not been heard from and it is feared that whole ships' crews have in several instances perished.

The plumbers wore a broad and expressive smile yesterday as they contemplated the many frozen-up water pipes about the city. Last winter they did not have a great amount of business, as the weather was generally mild, but this winter has begun in a manner which has great possibilities for the plumber.

The monthly sociable will be held at the Hammond street church vestry this evening, beginning at 7 o'clock, and a very pleasant time has been arranged for. There will be an attractive entertainment and refreshments will be served. There will doubtless be a large attendance of the members of the parish.

The lecture this evening before the Central Club by Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer, ex-president of the Wellesley College, will doubtless be very largely attended as there is a great desire to hear the distinguished speaker, who will be heard in Maine for the first time. Her subject will be "A Holiday in Greece."

The beginning of the new year always has terrors for accountants and secretaries who have been practicing on "1891" for some time so as to get their hands in. It will, however, take some little time for the business men to write the new date with that off hand confidence which is born only of continued practice.

The great Nelson is being kept in good condition this winter and the famous animal speeding up and down the streets of Waterville is a sight which is admired by many. He is not only remarkable for his speed, but his beauty of form and style of trotting are also noteworthy. There are no horses in Maine that want a brush with Nelson.

The Flying Yankee was an hour late into this city yesterday afternoon, the delay being caused by a wait of that length of time for the Canadian Pacific train. All of the late arrivals of the Yankee recently have been from the same cause. The snow storms have delayed the Canadian Pacific trains sometimes and there have also been other causes.

The Water Board wish to call attention to the great waste of water which has been going on for some time. We are informed that more water was pumped in December than in any month since the works were established. With all the pumps working it is impossible to furnish water to the higher portions of the city. Under such circumstances there is great danger in case of fire.

The new church which the Baptist society at Great Works has been building is completed and will be dedicated with appropriate services this afternoon. A number from this city have signified their intention of attending and it is hoped that many more may decide to go and show their interest in an event so important to the morality and welfare of the community as the erection of a church.

The Opera House ushers are making an active canvass of the city and have already disposed of a large number of tickets for their benefit, which will occur on Saturday evening, 10th inst. The instrumentation of the grand orchestra which will appear at the benefit, will be as follows: Two first violins, two second violins, viola, violoncello, double bass, flute, two cornets, two clarionets, horn, trombone and drums. Rehearsals under the direction of Mr. Oscar E. Wasgatt, commence this evening.

Mr. John Gillespie, of this city, had a very severe experience at Stillwater Tuesday night. He had been at Old Town, going there from Stillwater where he went to shoe some horses, and started on the return on foot. As it was intensely cold when he reached Stillwater he found that his feet, hands, ears and face were badly frozen. He obtained shelter that night and came to this city this morning. He is receiving medical treatment, and is as comfortable as could be expected.

Those pleasant events of winter, church fairs, held in scores of country towns in Maine during the holidays were very successful, and the cash receipts from them indicate anything but a tight money market. Indeed, the money realized from small fancy work sales and local entertainments in aid of church or Sabbath school, village improvements, public libraries and sidewalk enterprises, is really quite large in amount and indicates a degree of public spirit and liberality that is not only commendable but surprising.

REMEMBER THE CARRIER BOYS.—The carrier boys who leave THE WHIG at the doors of subscribers, through all kinds of weather, giving the readers the latest news at the earliest possible hour, will make their annual calls this morning with the New Year's addresses. They deserve the liberal patronage which will doubtless be given them. The address will be found to be an interesting [illegible]

All the wholesale and retail tobacco dealers of the city are receiving from the internal revenue office blanks to be used in filing their application for a rebate under the new law which takes effect January 1. Under its provisions all dealers having on hand at that time 250 pounds of tobacco in unbroken packages will secure a rebate of two cents per pound. Some of them have a number of tons and will receive quite a large amount. There is red tape enough to be gone through, however, to be worth nearly all the amount.

AN INTERESTING BULLETIN. An interesting bulletin has just been published by the U. S. Board on Geographic Names, relating to the correct spelling of geographic names in all parts of the United States. This bulletin embraces a list of 226 names of places, nine of which are in this State. These are given below, the correct or approved spelling being printed first and the discarded forms afterwards: 1 Abagadasset, Abagadusset; 2 Chandler Bay, west of Roque Island; 3 Ebenecook, Ebeneecook; 4 Englishman Bay, north of Roque Island; 5 Fish Point Ledge, Fishes, Fishpoint; 6 Hatch Point, Kennebec River, Hatche Point; 7 Ogier Point, Ogier; 8 Sherman Cove, Penobscot Bay, Sherman's; 9 Spear's Rock, Rockland Harbor; Spear. An interesting article on the orthography of Behring Sea is published in the bulletin; and the Board invites the assistance of all geographers, historians and other scholars interested in geographic nomenclature, in its special work.

B. E. H. CLUB BALL AND ENTERTAINMENT. The first annual ball and entertainment of the B. E. H. Club was given last evening at the City Hall, and there was a good attendance, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was very cold, showing that much interest was taken in the event. The first part of the evening was devoted to the musical and literary entertainment. The programme consisted of songs by Miss Mary Morgan, Mr. Don D. Hatch, Misses Elsie and Mattie Hatch, and the Olympic quartette, and readings by Miss Lilian Cleary. All of the selections were rendered in a manner that met with the hearty appreciation of the audience, and encores were numerous. Miss Emily Hartman acted as accompanist with much skill. After the entertainment the floor was cleared for dancing, and a goodly number participated in the pleasing exercises. Music was furnished by Messrs Lougee and Cushing. The event was a success throughout and reflects much credit upon those who arranged it.

Winn News.

DOWN WENT McMERCURY

To the Bottom of the Scale Wednesday Morning.

Extremely Cold Weather in this City and Vicinity,

The record for cold weather for the winter was broken yesterday morning, when the atmosphere was intensely frigid. The air was so full of frost that the appearance of a fog was given. The lowest point reached by the mercury in this city and reported, was forty degrees below zero, which is certainly cold enough to suit the most fastidious. Had there been any wind the cold would have been almost unbearable, and as it was, it required the thickest kind of clothing and vigorous exercise upon the part of pedestrians in the early morning hours, in order to keep comfortable.

At Shirley it was forty-two degrees below zero, forty-four at Eddington, thirty-three at Sebec and the same relative report comes from many other places in this vicinity. The weather was the chief topic of conversation. During the day it grew considerable warmer, but there was a very perceptible chill in the air, and late in the afternoon it was again quite cold. The night was very frigid. It has been several years since the weather has been so cold as it was yesterday morning and in fact the whole month of December has been very unusual in this respect, every day being alike. There was a marked absence of the frequent warm days which are usually experienced in the coldest weather.

The weather of yesterday recalls to the minds of the older citizens the day thirty-two years ago this winter known as "Cold Friday." That morning it was forty degrees below zero and the remarkable fact was that as the day progressed it grew no warmer, but remained as cold as in the morning. There was a great deal of suffering that day from exposure to the frigidity of the atmosphere and everybody who could kept in doors beside the fire. Many cases of freezing occurred at that time and it was such a very unusual state that the day has always been remembered.

It is thought that if the present conditions exist much longer that Penobscot bay will freeze over, as it has been known to do before. The water has had a month of weather very trying for it, and it would not be a surprise if it should yield to the congealing process which it seems is being forced upon it. The bay was frozen over in the winter of '72-'73, in a very solid manner. One of the steamers was frozen in at Belfast and was not released until April 17th. People crossed on the ice from Castine to Belfast as late as April 12th. It was a long continued spell of cold weather which brought about the freezing of the bay, and the conditions were something similar to those of the present winter. It is to be hoped that no such occurrence will come about this winter, as the closing of the bay would interfere with business to quite an extent, there being considerable navigation there during the winter months.

At the Maine State College at Orono yesterday morning 36 3-10 degrees below zero were indicated, which was the coldest ever known at the college in the twenty-two years in which the record has been kept.

At the Maine Central round house it was 40° below, on Morse's hill 30° and at Sule's market on Harlow street it was 35° below.

Newport escaped with only 6° at daylight and 2° at 7 o'clock. At Detroit, Palmyra and other places in the vicinity it was about the same.

This morning it was not nearly as cold as yesterday, the thermometer at 3.30 o'clock indicating about 14 below zero on Kenduskeag bridge, but it was probably colder in more exposed places in the city.

CHARMING DANCING PARTY

At the Residence of Gen. Charles W. Roberts Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. Charles W. Roberts and Miss Roberts were "at home" to a large number of their friends last evening at their pleasant residence on State street, the occasion being the "coming out" of Miss Roberts. The guests were received by the ladies in the east parlor, and from there passed to the other rooms upon the first floor, which were thrown open. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, palms, plants, laurel and other green growths, and presented an additionally attractive appearance. The evening was devoted to dancing, and several of the rooms on the first floor were used for this purpose. An orchestra of seven pieces, led by Mr. Oscar E. Wasgatt, furnished very inspiring music, and the pleasing exercise was carried on under very favorable conditions.

Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served. Afterwards a number of the figures of the German were indulged in by the intimate friends of Miss Roberts, and the time devoted to them was thoroughly enjoyed by all. When the time of departure came the guests made their adieux with a feeling of regret at the close of such a delightful event, but with the consciousness of having passed a charming evening, which marks another of those enjoyable dancing parties, which are so deservedly popular the present winter.

WEDDINGS YESTERDAY.

Brick—Rigby.

Miss Stella L. Rigby was united in marriage to Mr. Francis S. Brick, of Berlin Falls, N. H., yesterday by Rev. E. F. Pember, pastor of the Universalist church. Mr. Brick is a graduate of the Maine State College and is principal of the High School at Berlin Falls. He is a young man of excellent ability. The bride is a young lady of many estimable qualities and has a host of friends, who will wish her and her husband future happiness. The wedding presents were very numerous and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Brick left on the afternoon train for Berlin Falls, where they will reside in the future. They will receive the congratulations of very many friends.

Hexter—Park.

The residence of L. H. Park, Esq., on Ohio street, was the scene of a pleasant event Tuesday evening, when his daughter Miss Grace L. Park, was united in marriage to Mr. Benjamin F. Hexter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. C. Rogers, pastor of Grace church. Mr. Hexter, who is a member of the firm of Hooper & Hexter, merchant tailors, is a popular young man, and the bride is a young lady who is held in high esteem by all who know her. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Hexter have the best wishes of many friends for future happiness.

Owing to the inability of some of the young ladies to take part in the presentation of "Poor Pillicoddy," announced to be given at the entertainment for the benefit of the Opera House ushers next week, that play has been given up and in its place will be given "Box and Cox," which is generally considered to be the best farce ever written. The cast of characters will be as follows: John Box, Mr. Frank A. Owen; James Cox, Mr. F. H. Davis; Mrs. Bouncer, Mr. David Owen. A pleasing production is looked for.

Complaint was made to the police last evening that an old man named Freeman was flourishing a revolver about in the American House on Haymarket Square. Officers Barnes and [illegible] went to the house and arrested Freeman. [illegible]

MAINE MELANGE.

Bowdoin College Receives a Generous Sum for the Library.

Many Items of General Interest from all over Maine.

Androscoggin.

The driver of the stage running from Canton to Livermore Falls, via North Livermore tells of a tough trip on Saturday. The roads were in such condition that he dare not start out from Canton with the stage, but took one of the horses, and slinging the mail bag across its back, mounted and started out, leaving Canton at six o'clock in the morning, an hour earlier than usual. He found the roads worse than he expected, and in places it was almost impossible to get the horse through, but by continued exertions, he finally reached Livermore Falls as the factory whistles were blowing at twelve o'clock, thus taking six hours to make the trip of nine miles on horseback. The trip is usually made in an hour and a half.

Cumberland.

Mrs. Hannah Clark of West Baldwin, fell down a flight of stairs, recently, and died from the effects three days later, at the advanced age of seventy-nine years, five months.

Mr. Charles G. Rolfe, one of the oldest citizens of Portland, and who had been in business for over thirty years in one place, died Monday, at the age of eighty years.

The Charity Ball at Portland, Monday evening, was the social event of the season.

Part of the ceiling of the council chamber in the Portland City Building fell Saturday afternoon, but no one was injured.

One can not always tell, until long after the event, on what apparently insignificant act his whole future hinges. Dr. Cyrus Hamlin, president of Middlebury College in Vermont, and a native of Waterford, Me., in a recent address at Woodford's, said his life depended upon the making of a screw. When at Bowdoin College in 1832, he made a brass screw for Prof. Smith's theodolite and that led to his making a steam engine, the first one built in Maine. He had never seen one in all his life, but he asked the Professor if he thought he could sell an engine, if he could make one, for as much as he could earn by teaching in the vacation. The Professor thought he could, he had made the screw so perfectly. So he went to Portland and went to work in a clock-making establishment. At the end of ten weeks' vacation the engine was completed and sold to Bowdoin College for $175. He could have earned but $40 teaching. The price of the engine was sufficient to pay a year's expenses at Bowdoin then.

It is rumored a summer hotel is to be erected on Bauneg-Beg Mountain.

Bowdoin College library has just received a Christmas gift of one thousand dollars from Rev. Elias Bond, D. D., of the class of 1837, who has previously given liberally to the college.

The post office officials have a puzzle on hand—to find out where a letter had been wandering that was mailed at Ipswich, Mass., May 1, 1888, and reached its destination, Portland, Monday of this week.

Hancock.

The building of a new shoe factory at Ellsworth which has been contemplated for some time, is almost a settled fact. A company has been organized with a capital of $5,000. All the stock has been taken except a very small amount. This will be speedily taken and a building erected as soon as possible. This factory with the one already in operation will increase greatly the business prospects of the city.

Kennebec.

The annual meeting of the Maine Press Association will occur at Augusta on January 22 and 23 instead of 21 and 22 as announced. The event of the meeting will be a reception at the residence of Hon. P. O. Vickery on the evening of the 23d.

Although Sheriff Stevens has not finally decided in regard to special matters, he will appoint the following list of deputies in Kennebec county for the ensuing two years: William H. Libby, of Augusta; Edgar E. Norton, of Gardiner; James P. Hill, of Waterville; Edgar E. Maddox, of Hallowell; Ira M. True, of Hallowell; Sewall J. Hawes, of Readfield; E. D. Jepson, of China; Hiram Gilman, of Mt. Vernon; Edgar E. Robinson, of Mt. Vernon; Wallace E. Berry, of Winthrop; George H. Ames, of Chelsea; Samuel T. Hersom, of Oakland; Charles W. Jones, of Benton; Josiah Gifford, of Vassalboro; Charles F. Brown, of Monmouth; George B. McNally, of Clinton.

At the Clark & Chaplin ice house in Pittston, there are one hundred men at work. There are eleven inches of good ice, and they commenced running in ice Monday.

A small boy recently walked into a Hallowell drug store and asked for five cents' worth of jumps. The pill maker, after much puzzled thought, came to the correct conclusion that the lad wanted hops.

Augusta now sends out a story of how a frozen water pipe saved a house. In the kitchen of W. G. Fifield's confectionery establishment, the other night a fire caught and is supposed to have ignited a half barrel of syrup standing near. The flames warmed up the pipe just overhead and the water there being frozen it burst and extinguished the fire before any one had discovered it.

Knox.

David Kennedy, a well-known sea captain of Rockland, died Sunday after a long and serious illness, aged about forty-five. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and leaves a widow and several children.

Lincoln.

R. W. Haynes has been to Mouse Island looking over the Samoset House and making arrangements to bring water from Decker's pond to the Island, about one-third of a mile across from Southport Shore, where they would get plenty of run to throw the water all over the house. He has leased the Island again and every room in the house is engaged for a whole or part of the season. They hope to build addition in the spring.

Oxford.

Mr and Mrs. John G. Felt, of Woodstock, enjoy the unusual experience of rocking the cradle of a great-great-grandchild, since the birth of a little son to Mrs. William Hopkins, of Milton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sanborn, of Norway, observed the fifty-seventh anniversary of their wedding December 26th. Mr. Sanborn is now eighty-three years of age. He was formerly a resident of Standish. Thirty-three years ago he moved to Oxford County where he has since resided. In 1854 he represented his district in the Legislature. During the fifty-seven years sickness has seldom visited them, less than $25 having been contributed to the physicians for services rendered them.

Penobscot.

Mr. Asa Spooner, who has been the sole proprietor of the Dexter Exchange for the past six months has transferred his interests to Mr. Owen E. Blackden, formerly of the Lancey House at Pittsfield.

Somerset.

The new pulp mill at Madison is nearing completion rapidly. The brick work of the east wall will probably be finished this week. Work will then commence on the end wall. The roofers have nearly completed their work. The two digesters are in position, one of which is well along in riveting.

Mr. Albert H. Weston, of Skowhegan, has gone to Michigan, having been called there by Judge Turner Buswell to assist in looking up matters appertaining to the business of the Coburn heirs. Parties in Michigan have been trespassing upon and stripping the timber land belonging to the heirs, and measures are to be taken to make them settle for damages done. Mr. Weston has spent considerable time before in the matter.

The outlook for the cut of lumber on Dead River is somewhat discouraging as the heavy snow falls must cut the amount very much short of what was anticipated. Most of the operators who for years before had the largest part of their lumber on skids by the first of January, will have but a small part on skids January first, this year. The snow is from three to four feet deep now in the woods and another big storm will make a demand for shovellers.

York.

Two young sons of Joshua Littlefield, South Sanford, whose buildings were burned last spring, erected a roof over the cellar and have lived, or rather staid there much of the time since. Last week they purchased O. C. Dorr's shoe shop and will move it on to the spot.

West Levant Letter.

[Regular Correspondence Whig and Courier.]

Quite a large company of both old and young, gathered at the church Thursday evening, where stood a lofty Christmas tree with arms extended wide, laden with choice gifts of all sorts and kinds. A brief programme was first carried out. Several appropriate selections were well rendered by a choir composed as follows: Miss Josie Herrick, Miss Lena Plaisted, E. L. Wyman, E. F. White, Mrs. Maud Harvey, organist. Mrs. Harvey also assisted in the vocal music, her strong soprano voice proving very helpful. Then came the distribution of presents, when many bright eyes grew brighter and many hearts were made happier. Among the recipients of pleasing gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Deacon Herrick who, after receiving several very useful presents, were presented with a fine crayon portrait of their daughter, Mrs. Edith Waugh. A handsome gold watch chain and charm were among C. C. Simpson's gifts; his wife's most valuable presents were a silver pickle jar, a beautiful set of fruit plates and silver fruit knives and a hanging lamp. Santa Claus, in his eager haste to "get there," started out ahead of time, but halted on the way long enough to leave Mrs. Maud Harvey a lovely gold watch. The people having made preparations for the tree on very short notice and in order that they might have ample time in future, the announcement was made at the close of the entertainment that similar festivities would be held there on Christmas night, 1891.

F. H. Corson is in the place on a business trip from Boston to which place he expects to return soon.

Mrs. E. M. Doyen, whose recent illness has caused her friends much anxiety was able to attend the Christmas entertainment and also to entertain a few friends at a very pleasant tea party at her home recently. Mrs. Doyen has a host of friends who have been deeply interested for her in regard to her health and who rejoice to see her so far recovered.

Mr. William Preble is suffering from an injury which he received a few days ago. While riding on his ox sled behind a pair of steers, he was thrown suddenly onto a stake, striking heavily on his side, injuring him painfully at the time and he has since been unable to do any work. He thinks there may be some of the ribs broken or badly injured and yet he refuses to see a physician, thinking time alone can bring him out all right.

The High sheriff from Winn, was in town the 23d, also Mr. Rosco Brown, from Springfield.

The gift entertainment and ball, given under the auspices of the Kingman brass band, on Christmas night, was a financial success.

Portable Cooking Range.

FOR WOOD OR COAL.

The Clarion Ranges have been before the public 15 years and they have grown more popular each year until to-day it stands at the head of all others.

Please read what some of the leading dealers say about this celebrated Range

Messrs. Dame & Sleeper of Lynn, Mass., say: We have sold several hundred Clarion Ranges in the past five years and have as yet to find a case where one failed to work satisfactorily. They are splendid bakers. No other Ranges in these parts can hold a candle to it.

The Kohler Furnace and Steam Heating Co. of Boston, say: We have sold between four and five hundred Clarion Ranges to the best people in Boston, who pronounced them as being the most economical and quickest baking Range that they ever used.

Messrs. A. L. & E. F. Goss of Lewiston, say: "We have sold at retail of the Clarion, New Clarion, Royal Clarion and Gold Clarion Ranges, not less than four thousand (4000) and they have always given entire satisfaction."

Another remarkable fact is that the good old State of Maine, whose motto is, "We Lead," has produced the best cooking range in the market—this is a point we are proud of.

Messrs. Foss & Crockett, of Dexter, say: "We sold over seven hundred (700) Clarion Ranges. No other Range can fill its place for its unrivalled qualities. No other Manufacturer has ever made a Range to equal the Clarion, and why is a conundrum we have never comprehended."

Please send to us for our 32 page Book of Testimonials of the Clarion Ranges.

Notice of Foreclosure.

Whereas, Frederick E. French, of Bradford, Penobscot County, Maine, on the fourteenth day of October, A. D. 1879, by his mortgage deed of that date, recorded in Vol. 505, page 236, Penobscot Registry of Deeds, conveyed to me, the subscriber, the following described parcel of land, to wit: "A certain tract of land situated in said Bradford, it being the west half of lot numbered two hundred and three (203) according to a plan made by Andrew Strong, surveyor, together with the buildings standing on said premises, and being the same conveyed to the said mortgagor, by Robert J. Call," to secure the payment of two hundred and forty dollars ($240) as specified in said mortgage.

Now, therefore, the condition in said mortgage having been broken, and still remaining broken, I by reason thereof claim foreclosure of this mortgage, and give this notice for that purpose.

A BAD FACE HUMOR

Covering the Face with Disfiguring, Painful Blotches, Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

About seven years ago I had a humor break out upon my face; it started in a small blotch and looked like the sting of a bee, then it spread and looked like a ringworm, and became very painful. I at once went to one of the best doctors in the city, and he could do me no good. No less than twelve of the best doctors have had a trial at my face, and all of them failed. I will not give you a list of their names, but will say that they were from Boston, New York, and Maine, also from England, France, and Canada. I have been a hotel cook and steward for years. In the summer I cook at watering places, that is why I have had an opportunity of being among good doctors. They could not cure my face, and I had given up all hopes of ever being any better. Last June, I went to Moosehead Lake, Maine, to cook for the season. My face was so bad I did not like to be seen. At the lake I met a gentleman from England. He told me to use your CUTICURA REMEDIES, and they would cure me at once. I did so. The result was, in three weeks the sores on my face were healed up; I used it all the season. My face is all well, and no scars to be seen. I have recommended it to a number, and in every case it has cured them. It would take a great deal of money to put me back where I was one year ago, providing I did not know what your Cuticura would do. I shall recommend it as long as I live, and shall ever remain,

H. STEVENS, East Jackson, Me.
